

Congratulations!

Dear Clinic Manager,

Firstly, sincere apologies for an email that you received yesterday in relation to our Awards. This was an automatic wordpress message that was triggered in error as we tested our Awards notification :)

With that out of the way, I am delighted to say that your clinic has qualified for our 2016 Award for Customer Service, which is based on feedback from our users. Less than 2% of clinics meet this high standard!

The award badge will soon be added to your listing. This year we have made the Award Certificate available for download, instead of sending it by post. You can get your site badge and Award Certificate by logging into www.whatclinicawards.com, or through the link below.
